Scott Haggerty – Supervisor, Alameda County Regional Transportation Agency Representative

Scott Haggerty was first elected to the Alameda County Board of Supervisors in November of 1996. Scott is currently serving a fifth four-year term on the Board. He was elected by the Board to serve as its vice president for 2013-14. Haggerty's district includes the cities of Livermore, Dublin, most of the city of Fremont and unincorporated areas of East Alameda County.

Supervisor Haggerty has taken a leading role in improving transportation throughout the region. He is active on a number of boards and commissions and has extensive experience in this policy area. Appointed to the Metropolitan Transportation Commission (MTC) in 2000, he formerly served as chair and vice chair. He is also a member of the Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG) as well as the former chair of the Bay Area Air Quality Management District (BAAQMD). At the county-wide level, Scott serves as chair of the Alameda County Transportation Commission (ACTC); member and former chair of the Altamont Commuter Express Joint Powers Authority (ACE); member and chair of the Livermore Amador Valley Transit Authority (LAVTA); member of the Tri-Valley Transportation Council (TVTC); and member of the Board of Supervisors Transportation and Planning Committee.

At the national level, Scott represents Alameda County at the National Association of Counties (NACo) serving in various leadership capacities including vice chair of the Large Urban County Caucus. He is also a long-time member of NACo's Transportation Steering Committee serving two terms as its chair as well as heading up subcommittees for Rail and Transit and for Ports. NACo's membership totals more than 2,000 counties representing 80 percent of the U.S. population.
