

California Road Charge Technical Advisory Committee Member Biography

James Madaffer – Commissioner, California Transportation Commission (CTC) California Transportation Commission Representative

Jim Madaffer is the owner of Madaffer Enterprises, Inc., a successful public policy and government relations consulting firm specializing in government and corporate relations statewide, representing clients from a variety of industries including medical devices, insurance, travel, legal, development, telecommunications, and more. In 2000, Jim was elected to the San Diego City Council and was reelected in 2004. During his tenure on the City Council from 2000-2008 (leaving due to term limits), Jim held a number of leadership positions including President Pro-Tem and Mayor Pro-Tem.

Jim's accomplishments as an elected official are numerous: building libraries, fostering economic development, water and waste water policy and specializing in regional transportation and planning issues. Jim is also Past President of the League of California Cities. He served on the League Board of Directors for over eight years. During his tenure with the League, Jim led the passage of several statewide ballot measures that protect cities, represented California Cities before federal officials in Washington DC on various issues and worked closely with the Governor and California's legislative leadership on budget, environmental, transportation and planning issues. Jim was appointed by Governor Brown to the California Transportation Commission in January 2014.
